

Roo Guide for the CORE VET

ROO - HOO!

We are excited to offer you an opportunity to work full time as a Roo Core Vet!

What is Roo?

Roo is a platform that seamlessly pairs vet professionals with hospitals in need of relief work, while providing a community of support for everyone.

What is a Roo Core Vet?

A core vet is a DVM taking on a high number of shifts each month, earning more income and gaining a number of benefits as a frequent user. Core vets will be indicated on our website with a special badge to let hospital users know they can count on you!

What are the criteria?

- Perform at least 18 regular shifts or 12 emergency clinic shifts per month (or any combination thereof).
- The 18/12 shifts must be full-day or weekend shifts.
- Maintain at least a 4.1 rating.
- Be a state-licensed DVM & maintain personal liability insurance.

What if I have questions or concerns?

Why should I be a Core Vet?

- Get paid more – Make 50% more, on average, with Roo. Our shifts range from $520 - $1,200 or more depending on the shift type (average range: $600-$800).

Sample Roo full day shift amounts	Annual Income at 20 shifts per month	Avg % INCREASE compared to fulltime hospital work*
$600	$144,000	44%
$710	$170,400	70%
$950	$228,000	128%

- Receive a monthly $500 bonus – Complete at least the required number of shifts per month and receive a $500 bonus that can go towards health insurance, CE, or license fees.
- Get paid instantly - Automatic payments are done within 48 hours after ratings are completed. We can also accommodate monthly or biweekly payouts.
- Get independent health insurance support – Roo has partnered with a local health insurance company to help you find the best plan for your needs.
- Get tax support – Roo has partnered with a local tax support contact to help guide you through filing as an independent contractor.
- Receive a permanent referral code – For any new vet you refer who completes a shift, you receive an additional $100...no expiration date!

Relief. Support. Community.
